(Southampton, PA) Due to an increase in what the federal government reports a household can earn and be considered under the poverty level in 2017, adult residents of Bucks and Montgomery Counties can now earn more money and still be eligible for free dental care from HealthLink Dental Clinic.

The federal government's Department of Health & Human Services has released the 2017 Federal Poverty Guidelines. According to the HHS, they are "calculated by taking the 2015 Census Bureau's poverty thresholds and adjusting them for price changes between 2015 and 2016 using the Consumer Price Index (CPI-U)." This update means that the income eligibility guidelines to become receive free dental care at HealthLink have also changed.

Adults wishing to become a HealthLink patient can now earn more money and still be eligible. HealthLink defines "low-income" as living in a household with an annual income at or below 250% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

The maximum income limit depends on the number of people in the household. A single individual can earn as much as $30,150 and be eligible to receive free dental care at HealthLink. A family of four could make as much as $61,500. The full income chart can be found on the clinic's website.

In addition to the income limits, other eligibility requirements must be met:

- You must be 18 years of age or older,
- You must live in Bucks or Montgomery County, and
- You or your spouse/domestic partner must be working (full-time, part-time, or seasonally).

Eligible patients can receive a full range of oral health services for free at the clinic's location on Street Road in Southampton. Available services include: cleanings, deep cleanings, x-rays, extractions, fillings, root canals, oral cancer screenings, and patient education.

For more information about becoming a HealthLink patient, visit www.healthlinkdental.org or call (215) 364-4247.
